Dear Applicant

POST: Head of Department - Science

Thank you for your interest in the post of Head of Science. The London Nautical School is a totally unique boy's school right in the heart of London. The opportunities available to staff and pupils are unparalleled. We are seeking to appoint an outstanding Head of Science to work across across key stages 3 to 5 leading a department of seven staff who has the drive and ambition to steer the department on a journey of improvement.

The London Nautical School uses a variety of recruitment selection methods which offer applicants increased opportunities to demonstrate their skills and experience. If you are shortlisted, the selection process may include tests as well as an interview. If you have any questions about the recruitment process, or if you have a disability and have particular requirements you would like us to consider to assist you in the process please contact Sally Palmer via email recruitment@lns.org.uk

If you would like to visit the school prior to applying please do not hesitate to contact us via email recruitment@lns.org.uk to make the necessary arrangements.

The post is 'exempt' under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. The successful candidate for this post will be asked to apply for an Enhanced Disclosure. Please note that in relation to Section G on the application form, if you do have a criminal record or pending prosecutions, your declaration of this should not be sent with the application form but should be sent under separate confidential cover to Sally Palmer, Head's PA/HR Officer. Please ensure that your full name and post title is included with any information sent. Please read the enclosed guidelines for further information.

Please return your application form by Friday 7th February 2020 at 10am via email to recruitment@lns.org.uk or by post to: The London Nautical School, FOA: Sally Palmer
61 Stamford Street
London, SE1 9NA

In this application pack we have enclosed:

1. School Information pack
